GOING ON VACATION?

Isn't it wonderful that our Lord affords us time to get away and relax? Shouldn't we at least make as much effort to attend Mass while away to show our thanks. Can't find church? There is almost always a church nearby! Most hotels or other accommodations know of the nearby churches and of their Mass schedules. All you need to do is ask. Also, all churches are listed in the local Yellow Pages under :Churches: Roman Catholic, or on the internet. There is really no good reason to miss Mass, if you really want to give God His due!

Don't be in a hurry at the conclusion of Holy Mass:

Please do not leave the Church before the Celebrant (priest). The Mass ends officially when the priest leaves the Church.

Even then, it is usually advised you sit or kneel in silent prayer of thanksgiving or simply gaze at Jesus in the Tabernacle, smile at Him and just be joyful.

God loves you!

COME BE MY LIGHT Mother Teresa & Kolodiejchuk B

This historic work reveals the inner spiritual life of one of the most beloved and important religious figures in history--Mother Teresa. During her lifelong service to the poorest of the poor, Mother Teresa became an icon of compassion to people of all religions; her extraordinary contributions to the care of the sick, the dying, and thousands of others nobody else was prepared to look after has been recognized and acclaimed throughout the world. Little is known, however, about her own spiritual heights or her struggles.

This collection of her writing and reflections, almost all of which have never been made public before, sheds light on Mother Teresa's interior life in a way that reveals the depth and intensity of her holiness for the first time. Compiled and presented by Fr. Brian Kolodiejchuk, M.C., who knew Mother Teresa for twenty years and is the postulator for her cause for sainthood and director of the Mother Teresa Center, Mother Teresa brings together letters she wrote to her spiritual advisors over decades. A moving chronicle of her spiritual journey—including moments, indeed years, of utter desolation—these letters reveal the secrets she shared only with her closest confidants. She emerges as a classic mystic whose inner life burned with the fire of charity and whose heart was tested and purified by an intense trial of faith, a true dark night of the soul.

The Pastor's Pen

Dear Friend,

Pope John Paul I stated states that a problem with educating young people in the church stems from a failure to understand how young people learn. He claimed that adults learn in the following pattern:

- 1) acceptance of absolutes;
- 2) subordination of attitudes and actions to absolutes;
- 3) application of truth received to life experience.

Knowing something as an adult is based primarily upon remembering information and intellectual learning.

Youth, the pope contended, learn in a different way:

- 1) evaluation of life experience;
- 2) discovery of attitudes and actions which validate their life experiences;
- 3) identifying truth based on their relevance to life experience;
- 4) acceptance of Catholic truths that prove reliable from life experience.

Life experience, through the lens of Faith, is the main influence on the learning young mind.

The pope often told parents and teachers to continue to pray and never lose heart.

Father Matthew
